

Wednesday, March 22, 2006

12:30 PM - 1:45 PM EST

Our March teleconference will be:

MANAGING MULTI-NATIONAL CORPORATE GOVERNANCE: SOX AND DATA PROTECTION

Corporate Counsel magazine and Steptoe & Johnson LLP sponsor a regular teleconference series highlighting important corporate and legal issues your company might face.

Speakers to include:

Ethiopia Tafara
Director
SEC's Office of International Affairs

Clarisse Girot
Senior Legal Advisor
French CNIL Department of European and International Affairs

Maury Shenk
Managing Partner
London Office
Steptoe & Johnson

Bob McLaughlin
Partner
Steptoe & Johnson LLP

Join the teleconference with our securities and privacy lawyers and US/ French government officials. They will discuss how to manage the emerging tensions between the Sarbanes-Oxley Act (SOX) whistleblower provisions and EU data protection law. What is the likely direction of EU law? Do SOX whistleblower obligations have an extraterritorial effect? What is the proper shape for the whistleblower program of a global company?

Free. The teleconference is toll-free; there is no charge to participate. Materials will be provided in advance to registrants.

Contact: Alycia Polley at 202.457.5436, email events@steptoe.com, or register at www.steptoe.com