STEP TOE & JOHNSON LLP

first annual Employment Law Seminar

Presented by Step toe & Johnson LLP

*The Arizona Biltmore Resort
December 8, 2009*

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Happy and healthy workplaces begin with having a firm grasp on legal issues. Complying with the many federal, state and local laws is one of the most challenging aspects of keeping your employees in the best place possible - both for them and the company. This seminar provides practical and creative answers to these challenges. The written materials contain in-depth legal analysis but also common sense guidance and sample policies and forms. The presentations are designed to be useful and informative, with a good dose of humor. This is not your typical mundane employment law seminar!

LUNCHEON SPEAKER

Ted Taylor is President of Pops Health, Inc. where he manages a completely virtual team of health improvement professionals delivering video health testing and coaching programs across the United States. Ted will be discussing the "Pops Wellness Solution," a lockbox solution for reducing healthcare costs that incorporates video technology and behavioral health research tools to motivate employee health participation.
