Transportation & Infrastructure Policy

Step toe represents a broad range of transportation companies, trade associations, and other entities in public-policy related issues before the Congress, the Executive Branch, including the Department of Transportation and its constituent agencies, and Independent Agencies.

Step toe attorneys have significant policymaking experience on all facets of transportation and have held executive positions in Congress, the Department of Transportation, and the Surface Transportation Board.

Our services include strategic advice to clients on how best to influence legislative and administrative matters, advocacy before policymakers in the Congress and the Executive Branch, and analysis of legislative and regulatory actions for clients.
