Property

Whether you are contemplating the acquisition or disposal of a single property or a portfolio, development a site, granting or taking leases, or need help with planning or environmental issues, our team has the experience to guide you.

We handle real estate matters for a large number of property companies, developers, wealthy investors and tenants. Our property work ranges from industrial and retail premises and infrastructure to residential, hotel and leisure developments. The service we offer covers not only pure real estate issues but also negotiating banking facilities, construction documentation, and the creation of real estate-holding entities such as limited partnerships and limited liability companies. Our experience also enables us to resolve any disputes in the swiftest and most economical manner available, whether through negotiation, mediation or formal proceedings.

Our aim is to provide a responsive, cost-effective and commercial service to clients, the majority of whom we regard as friends.

“This excellent team puts the client at the heart of the practice - its client service is the best I have experienced” UK Chambers Directory, 2010 edition
