Jose Ramon Gonzalez-Magaz

Jose Ramon Gonzalez-Magaz is a partner in the Washington office of Steptoe & Johnson LLP.

Antitrust and Competition Law

Mr. Gonzalez-Magaz's practice covers several fields of antitrust litigation, including price-fixing claims, horizontal restraint of competition, as well as Walker Process and "sham litigation" related to patent infringement claims. He has prepared pre-merger submissions to US, European and Latin American competition authorities; and has provided legal advice on the interaction of US antitrust statutes and their Latin American counterparts. Mr. Gonzalez-Magaz has also provided guidance and training, and prepared compliance manuals, regarding search warrants and "dawn raids."

Litigation and Arbitration

Mr. Gonzalez-Magaz is experienced in several areas of US and international litigation, including matters involving products liability and toxic tort claims. He has extensive litigation experience involving underground storage tanks, and has appeared in courts across the country for litigation involving asbestos, welding fumes, and silica claims. Mr. Gonzalez-Magaz also has significant experience designing complex e-discovery processes.

International Arbitration and Dispute Resolution

Mr. Gonzalez-Magaz represents clients in arbitrations under ICSID, ICC, AAA, and other rules. Working with local counsel, he has advised multinational corporations regarding commercial issues and disputes under the laws of the United States, Brazil, Mexico, and other nations.
