Civil Justice Trends Across Latin America: Exposing Business to Increased Civil Liability in Key Jurisdictions

For this panel, ILR will release two papers related to civil justice trends that may expand – or already are expanding – civil liability in Latin America for businesses. This panel will address some of the key findings from these two papers, including, but not limited to, civil liability measures across the continent as a whole, recent class action proposals, claimant-friendly changes in the rules of civil procedure within key jurisdictions, in particular Brazil, and recommendations for navigating these developments.

Introduced by: Lisa A. Rickard, President, U.S. Chamber Institute for Legal Reform

- William Crampton, Partner, Shook, Hardy & Bacon, L.L.P.
- Fernando Dantas M. Neustein, Partner, Mattos Muriel Kestener, Advogados
- Ricardo Ríos Ferrer, Senior Partner, Ríos-Ferrer, Guillén-Llarena, Treviño y Rivera S.C., and President-Elect, Mexican Bar Association
