Overview

The DC Bar covered Steptoe’s Pride Month lunch event on June 13 that featured a presentation by the parents of Matthew Shepard, the college student who was murdered 20 years ago in a hate crime that made national headlines. During their presentation, Judy and Dennis Shepard discussed their journey of advocating for LGBTQ acceptance, including their founding of the Matthew Shepard Foundation.

The full article can be read at the DC Bar.