On Demand Videos: Weekly EU Regulatory Round-Up

November 2, 2020

Speakers
Darren Abrahams, Ruxandra Cana, David O'Sullivan, Deborah C. Attwood, Erik Janus, Eléonore Mullier, Algirdas Semeta

Overview

On October 14, the European Union has outlined its Chemicals Strategy for Sustainability (CSS), which aims to address the assessment of the risk posed by hazardous chemicals. The CSS marks the first rethink of EU chemicals policy in 20 years.

In this week's video, Ruxandra Cana and Eléonore Mullier provide an analysis of the planned overhaul of EU chemicals legislation, the key issues for the industry, and the next steps.

If you have any suggestions for future topics, or questions on the topics discussed, please don’t hesitate to reach out.

In Case You Missed It

Click here to access the update for the week of June 23.
Ruxandra Cana and Eléonore Mullier focused on the European Commission’s Chemicals Strategy for Sustainability.

Click here to access the update for the week of June 15.
David O'Sullivan returned to provide an update on the Brexit negotiations and Eléonore Mullier discussed post Brexit arrangements for Biocidal Products Regulation (BPR) authorizations.

Click here to access the update for the week of June 8.
David O’Sullivan, Ruxandra Cana, and Algirdas Semeta discussed the judgment of the German Constitutional Court on the European Central Bank Public Sector Purchase Programme and the ECHA Safer Chemicals Conference 2020.

Click here to access the update for the week of June 1.

Ruxandra Cana and Eléonore Mullier discussed progress towards REACH registration of polymers and recent decisions of the ECHA Board of Appeal.

Click here to access the update for the week of May 25.

Click here to access the update for the week of May 18.

Ruxandra Cana, Deborah Attwood, and Eléonore Mullier covered the Commission’s note on the definition of intermediates and the US FDA’s and TTB’s regulation of hand sanitizers, including their policies applicable to alcohol-based hand sanitizers during the COVID-19 public health emergency.

Click here to access the update for the week of May 11.

Darren Abrahams, Ruxandra Cana, Eléonore Mullier, and Erik Janus discussed ECHA extensions of deadlines for industry, the US EPA’s existing regulation of disinfectants and their response to COVID-19, and the renewal of Biocidal Active Substances including draft guidance on data & Art. 95.

Click here to access the update for the week of May 4.

David O’Sullivan, Ruxandra Cana, and Eléonore Mullier provided an update on Brexit, and discussed COVID-19 measures for personal protective equipment (PPE) and REACH Committee upcoming meetings and discussions.

Click here to access the update for the week of April 27.

Darren Abrahams, Ruxandra Cana, and Eléonore Mullier covered COVID-19 measures for medicinal products, COVID-19 developments in Member States, and the do’s and don’ts in submitting comments under REACH and CLP procedures.

Click here to access the update for the week of April 20.

Ruxandra Cana and Eléonore Mullier discussed single use plastics, Brexit, and Commission Green Deal files.

Click here to access the update for the week of April 13.

Ruxandra Cana and Eléonore Mullier provided an update on REACH completeness check procedure, the impact of COVID-19: on the extension of deadlines and the availability of authorities, and strategy on sustainable chemicals.

Click here to access the update for the week of April 6.

Ruxandra Cana and Eléonore Mullier covered REACH substance evaluation, public consultation on endocrine disruptors, ECHA recommendations for Annex XIV REACH, and biocides and COVID-19.

Practices
Chemicals & Environment

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Resource Center

© 2021 STEPTOE & JOHNSON LLP. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. ATTORNEY ADVERTISING.