Overview
Event Details
Steptoe's Second Annual Regulatory Symposium, originally planned for May 2020, is going virtual! Rather than host another half-day program, we've divided the symposium into four separate offerings. We hope you'll join us!

Opening Plenary Session:
Date: Thursday, September 10, 2020

Featured in our opening plenary are the Honorable Rostin Behnam (Commissioner, Commodity Futures Trading Commission), the Honorable Mignon L. Clyburn (former Commissioner and acting Chair, Federal Communications Commission), the Honorable Patrick Fuchs (Member, Surface Transportation Board) and the Honorable Richard Glick (Commissioner, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission).

Following this broader discussion, we will narrow our focus by offering three breakout sessions, with each topic seen through the lens of our overall theme: infrastructure streamlining and funding, mergers in regulated industries, and the impact of the election on regulatory agencies and businesses. More information about these breakout sessions will follow soon.

We are confident our virtual event series will provide insight into how the regulatory process can propel, and not just hinder, your business goals. We hope you can join us!
