Join David A. Fruchtman, chair of Steptoe’s national State and Local Tax practice, for a complimentary webinar on state and local tax news and trends. This edition of the webinar will be 75 minutes long, and David will be joined by special guest Carol Portman, President of the Taxpayers’ Federation of Illinois.

In this fast-paced presentation, David will analyze the most significant developments in multistate and local tax legislation, case law, tax studies, and administrative pronouncements nationwide, with an emphasis on developments occurring since September 1, 2020.

Who should attend?
Tax practitioners who regularly confront state tax issues. These include in-house professionals, CPAs, lawyers, and government employees.

Learning objectives
Participants who complete the course will acquire a broad understanding of recent developments in multistate and local tax legislation, case law, and administrative pronouncements nationwide, including the practical implications thereof.
