Overview
Kate Jensen is a member of the Government Affairs & Public Policy practice. She focuses on legislative and regulatory counseling in the financial services, commercial real estate and energy efficiency sectors. Kate is particularly focused on issues related to various lines of insurance, and advises clients on all aspects of policy and compliance in that space. Her clients include large trade associations and major US-based companies.

Kate represents multiple clients before the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) and the National Conference of Insurance Legislators (NCOIL). She advocates on clients’ behalf as model legislation is considered and advises them on strategic and substantive matters. Kate also serves on the Board of the National Insurance Producer Registry alongside insurance regulators and other insurance industry representatives.
